ASCENT SUMMIT RECAP From Darla Holmes

Monica and I were honored to attend the Vital Preschools and Ascent Summit last week in Virginia. As the Church navigates cultural change, generational shifts, and emerging realities, many leaders are asking deeper questions about formation, faithfulness, and witness in the world we're actually living in. This week-long forum, including round tables, helped over 200 leaders from around the US ponder such questions, while directing us to dive deeper in many of these topics.

Together, these workshops invited leaders to broaden their perspective, deepen their formation, and engage the future with confidence rooted in the gospel. I walked away feeling God's power and love as we seek Him and listen to what FBCScottsdale's footprint will unfold as we glorify our Lord and Savior. These continuous educational opportunities are profound in the energy that drives us in ministry. For many faiths to come together with one God in common, is a blessing. You learn through fellowship that we have more of the same challenges and opportunities, and you are never alone in the desire to serve and grow disciples in Christ.

CHANENI REQUESTS...

Chaneni House has two big requests this week:

1. Our shelves are calling out for men's underwear and socks.

2. We still have a great need for help!

Would you prayerfully consider volunteering with us for a couple of hours on a Monday, Wednesday, or Friday morning? It doesn't have to be every week. Even once a month would be great! We would surely appreciate your precious time and caring presence.

HAPPY 90th BIRTHDAY, DON KING!

Long-time FBCScottsdale member Don King was surprised after service on Sunday with a little celebration for his 90th birthday. Look closely at the picture of Don and his cupcake. Do you notice a resemblance?
