A MONTH IN THE LIFE OF FIRST BAPTIST

From Gary Tannenbaum

The church continues to move forward with new activities, volunteering, and updates.

The Worship Leader search team is meeting weekly and continuing to search for a new Worship Leader. They would like to thank those who have filled in during this transition time and ask members to pray that the Holy Spirit will help lead the efforts to fill this position.

The church has started a MomCo group for moms and grandmas and folks who care for children. MomCo meets on the first and third Tuesdays of each month from 9am to 11am. It's a way for them to come together, share trials and triumphs, and be honest about hard aspects of family life and motherhood. All our community ladies are welcome to come and support the project. Please share this with neighbors who have young families. This is another positive step in supporting families.

A huge thank you to the member who stepped up to pay for one year of the Children's curriculum, to those members who repaired, textured, and painted the 6'x8' section of wall across from the dance/yoga room, and to the member who fixed some outside plumbing and landscaping fixtures and filled in the needed dirt.

Office support. We are now fully staffed with volunteers in the office. The office is now open from 10am to 3pm Monday through Thursday. A big thank you to those volunteers.

Sunday Morning Greeters. Thanks to Deb Fuller for leading Greeters over the last 4 years. Nancy Westlake and Elaine Almblade have agreed to co-lead this team going forward. Thank you both. Please let them know if you would like to be part of the greeting team.

The Child Development Center continues to move forward in their plans. They had positive and encouraging results in their meeting with an outside assessment group.

The Church Member Directory will be having a much-needed update. There will be photos taken in the lobby before and after the service this coming Sunday, and on June 22nd and 29th.

WELCOME To The Faith Family At

FIRST BAPTIST

THE BAPTISM OF LESLEY JOHNSTON

Your adventurous life with Christ has begun!
You have a seat at God's table, and we welcome you to the Faith family at First Baptist Church of Scottsdale.

We were blessed to hear Lesley's moving and beautiful testimony, read by Bethany Mannix, and share in the joy of her baptism.

Lesley's Testimony:

Hello, my name is Lesley and I'm blessed to be here, getting baptized today. I never thought I would be getting baptized as an adult. There are a few people I want to thank for helping me on my journey to make this decision. I want to thank my husband, Murray, for his love and his spiritual example and guidance in my life; I also want to thank First Baptist Church of Scottsdale – for this community and the leaders in the First Baptist community who have helped me get to this spiritual place. In addition, I want to sincerely thank Bethany Mannix, who I consider a sister in Christ, for reading my testimony.

This testimony was not easy for me to write, as I am someone who has always tried to hide my struggles, and I have also not always been completely honest with myself about many things in my life. I asked for the Holy Spirit's help in writing this and I do believe the Holy Spirit has helped me. Something that has also pushed me on the road to baptism has been witnessing the many young people here at First Baptist who have gotten baptized in the past few years; their leadership, boldness, strength and honesty has inspired me to become more honest in my walk with God, and for their examples I am incredibly grateful.

I grew up in a home where my family was familiar with the foundation of the Bible; we celebrated Christian holidays, understood their significance, and attended a church every week, but I never felt like I had a real relationship with God. My parents were divorced when I was 6, and from the time my parents divorced, every week my sister and I would go back and forth between my Dad and Stepmom's house and my Mom's house, where we had separate churches for each household. My parents did the best they could in both households to provide spiritual direction based on their own spiritual walks, but when I thought about God and the people who followed Jesus, I felt like I wasn't good enough to be considered someone God would want on HIS team.

As a kid, I felt like something was seriously wrong with me. I didn't understand why I was so sensitive and why I felt so alone. Connecting with people was hard for me and I felt shame about that. My family had always pushed me to be social, and I liked being social because I loved the people around me, but social interactions weren't easy for me. I had a lot of anxiety in large crowds, anxiety while in my classes at school, and anxiety at family gatherings. I didn't know how to explain my anxiety or what I was feeling. By the time I was in middle school, I chose to lose myself in substances because I really didn't like myself at all and I felt shame and anger about who I was and my limitations. I continued to use substances throughout middle school, high school, college and into my 30's to cope with being in the world (which was sometimes confusing for me) and to calm all the negativity going on in my head.

I felt like I was a huge disappointment to my family and to God. In my deepest thoughts, I didn't think anyone would love me enough to ever want to marry me due to the past choices I had made. I also never thought I would have children and chose not to because I never thought I would be a good mother. I didn't think I was good enough to be in the world. I didn't think I could be used by God, and I didn't understand what my purpose or value was; I felt lost and misunderstood and spent much of my life wondering what my purpose was here on Earth. Because of this, I spent a lot of time wandering around in my own wilderness. I wasted a lot of time and hurt many people with my words and actions. It was hard for me to truly love people when I didn't feel lovable, and I didn't feel like I could be loved by God.

The paths I took and the beliefs I held weren't just lonely but were destructive. They weren't just destructive to me, but destructive to my family relationships, romantic relationships, and friendships. Not feeling worthy of love caused me to end relationships prematurely- leaving broken hearts, it seemed, everywhere I went, and I seemed to have a never-ending supply of my own broken heartedness. In the midst of my destruction, I had deep shame, regret and anxiety about my behavior and my actions; for years I was in denial about the girl I was and the substances I used. I hid my true self and felt disappointed that I wasn't good enough to fully embrace a relationship with God. For many years, I wanted to start my life over completely. I felt I had completely trashed myself to a place where I couldn't recover.

Thankfully, God didn't allow me to completely destroy myself or trash my life. God has saved me from my own destruction over and over again. God has saved and restored many of the relationships that I thought were gone for good. God has not ever given up on me and the relationship he has called me to have with him. Thankfully, God has kept my heart open and my ears willing to listen.

This past spring season, when I fasted for the first time, I heard God tell me to let go of these negative thoughts for good, and to let go of the past and shame I have been carrying for years. God told me to forgive myself for listening to the lies that I wasn't good enough for his love; God told me to accept my mistakes and missteps and to ask for forgiveness for the times in my life when I was not walking with him.

The passage in Isaiah 43:18-19 states: "Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland."

God called me to forgive myself for acting from a place of unworthiness and to begin trusting HIM and this present moment and to trust HIM with His future plans for my life.

Philippians 4:8 states: "Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things."

This verse is dear to me because it has helped me to stop dwelling on the past and to think about all of the new things that are to come. I can't change the past, but I can heal from it. I can't undo the mistakes I made in the past, but I can make better decisions. I now see that I am indeed human – with human flaws and faults like any other human. Most importantly, I fully believe now that I am a child of God and worthy of His love.

FBCSCOTTSDALE MEMBERSHIP PATHWAYS

FBCScottsdale loves everyone who attends and participates in the life of our congregation and ministry to our community. We encourage those who feel a connection to Jesus at FBCScottsdale to make that connection official and put down roots by joining as a member.

Joining FBCScottsdale is easy. Simply share your decision to join with a Deacon or a Staff member. This may be done by going to the stained glass in the Sanctuary at the invitation during Sunday Worship or in a separate conversation. The Deacon or Staff member will ask you by which of the following "pathways" you are joining:

- By profession of faith in Jesus Christ upon receiving believer's baptism by immersion;
- By statement of faith in Christ and prior believer's baptism by immersion, sprinkling or pouring;
- By associate membership, for persons who have made a profession of faith in Christ and who wish to participate in the life of FBCScottsdale, but also wish to retain membership in another congregation.

A staff member will invite you to talk and share about your decision. The Lead Pastor will present your name and story to the Elders at their next meeting. They will consider and make a decision regarding your membership. When approved, you will become a member and receive the Right Hand of Fellowship on a future Communion Sunday. This decision always ends in a celebration!

Consider putting down those roots as we Offer a Seat at God's Table for an Adventurous Life with Christ!

NEW FRONTIERS RETREAT – WESTMONT COLLEGE

By Darla Holmes

Last week was the end of my year-long cohort and retreat experience with the New Frontiers Group out of Westmont College. It included three 4-night retreats, and monthly Zoom meetups where we taught our group and learned from each other. It was truly sad to say goodbye at the end of our Westmont retreat. Whatever this year might have been, it was a really wonderful time of new friendships, new learning, and new inspiration.

I thank the Gaede Institute for this project. The support, dialog, and prayer from each person in this group has been immeasurable. Our breakout sessions were so thought-provoking. Our last session this time was with eight professors from Westmont College in a vast area of disciplines. The question was: “what is community?” After each professor gave a definition with explanation from their discipline, we had discussions. It was deep and I brought back with me some new insight on what God might be doing right here at our church.

I also enjoyed a session with one of their music professors on the subject of Worship. What is worship? With all of the denominations represented, the dialog was limitless! Several of the pastors were from Worship and there was so much to take in. I bring that gleaning back to First Baptist.

It was an honor to have walked the road of ministry with these incredible people in this short year together. I am thankful for this opportunity. New Frontier was in perfect alignment and in God’s timing to grow me more as a leader and deepen my relationship with Him.

CHANENI HOUSE HELPED 433 CLIENTS IN MAY!

The work that we do is made possible by the service of 16 volunteers. Chaneni is staffed 100% by faithful women who work hard every shift. This is a fellowship of people who love the Lord and therefore find joy in helping "these brothers and sisters" of His as we are charged in Matthew 25.

A second group of people who make this ministry possible are those who support us with your donations. Thank you for your faithfulness. We were able to help those who came because of you. Every donation is welcome.

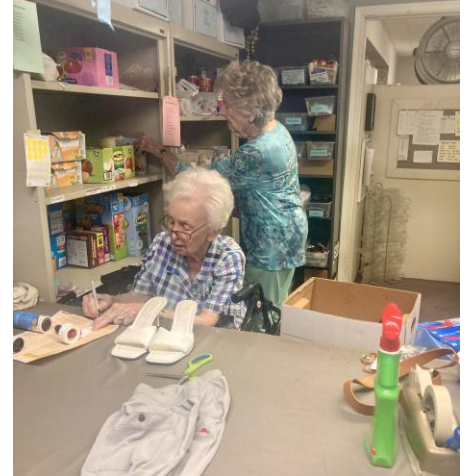

We continue to be very low on men's shorts, socks, and underwear and on toys.

Matthew 25: 35-40 says:

<sup>35</sup> For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, <sup>36</sup> I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.'

<sup>37</sup> "Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink?' <sup>38</sup> When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you?' <sup>39</sup> When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?'

<sup>40</sup> "The King will reply, 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.'

WOMEN'S MINISTRY

"Steeped In Faith" Event Recap

Many of the women of First Baptist came together on Saturday, May 31, to hear a thoughtful and inspiring talk by Angela Mansfield. Angela spoke about the gospel of John, its focus on our relationship with God, and what we what we are steeping ourselves in as we try to live a faith filled life. Of course, we are Baptists, so we also enjoyed a delicious brunch that featured various teas and tasty side dishes.
